

City of Devonport Tasmanian Open 2015 & Devonport Squash Club Open 2015

The Devonport Open was again held in conjunction with the Tasmanian Open PSA event - this year over the weekend of 24 - 26 July.

The PSA Players, as would be expected, put on a great display of what it takes to be a professional squash player with speed, touch, power and a never say die attitude.

In the men's PSA Kush Kumar (3rd seed) defeated the first seed Jamie Haycocks in 3 sets with an amazing display of speed and touch.

In the women's event Christine Nunn (1st seed) defeated South African Cheyne Tucker (3rd seed) also in 3 sets breaking her opponent with a mental attitude that was one of not giving one easy point.

In the Devonport Open a total of 50 players competed across six different divisions. All players were to be commended on their sportsmanship with a fantastic weekend had by all. In the Open final Devonport's own Jessie Youd took on Hobart's David Mulcahy with Jessie taking the chocolates.

- In Division 1 Toby Moore defeated Devonport's Rod Cahill
- In Division 2 Harry Palfreyman defeated Devonport's Grace Pattison
- In Division 3 Tane Routledge defeated Devonport's Lachlan Bell
- In Division 4 Emma Clyde defeated Jimmy Smit
- In Division 5 it was an all Devonport affair with Linda Pattison defeating Bethany Campbell; and
- In Division 6 Joseph Clyde defeating Devonport's Ashley Bell

Congratulations to all players and we look forward to seeing you again next year.

The Devonport Squash Club extends grateful thanks to all our sponsors . Their contributions enabled the generous prizes and undoubtedly made this tournament the success it was.
